Central Huron Fire Department vs Huron County OPP Ice Hogs

(HURON COUNTY, ON) – The Huron County Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Ice Hogs took on the Central Huron Fire Department (CHFD) in a long-standing friendly hockey rivalry, also known as the "Guns vs Hoses" game. Both teams gave it their all, and after a tough three periods, the long bench of the Huron OPP Ice Hogs claimed victory with a 7-2 win over the high-energy Central Huron Fire Department.

Prizes were handed out after a raffle and chuck-a-puck event which was a favourite with the kids in attendance. A silent auction drew lots of interest as well.

"It was a great game with lots of fantastic plays from both teams. I enjoyed seeing everyone having fun and spending time together on the ice. The community support was excellent with people of all ages in the stands. No injuries were reported, and everyone had fun for a couple of great local programs, Huron County Victim Services and Huron-Perth Crime Stoppers. Thanks again to everyone that came out on Sunday to support the teams and raise funds." said Constable Craig Soldan of the Huron OPP.
